D'BRIEN RUN AWAY FROM TOMMY BURNS

Quaker Fighter Badly Scared And Received a Bad Beating.

CANADIAN IS NOW CHAMPION.

Beferce Became Suspicious and Before Mostilities Called All Bets Off-Philadelphian Favorite.

Los Angeles, May 8 .- Tommy Burns of Los Angeles won the heavyweight cham-pionship of the world from "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien, before the Pacific Ath-letic club here tonight, after twenty rounds of fighting that was for the most part a foot race. O'Brien ran away from rounds of fighting that was for the most part a foot race. O'Brien ran away from Burns from the first round to the fluish and only occasionally was the latter able to overtake him. Then O'Brien invariably clinched with Burns and held on until the referee pried them apart. The crowd hooted and jeered O'Brien and hurled all sorts of raillery at him as he raced about the ring. But very few blows of any vigor were landed by either man, and neither suffered any apparent damage. Both of O'Brien's eyes were damaged and his lips were cut open, but Burns had scarcely a scratch.

Burns showed his disgust with the tacties of his opponent and called to him the acted by a latter of his opponent and called to him the pated by in a loud voice to "come on and fight." Burns would chase his man around the ring, O'Brien running as if in terfor of his antagonist. Now and then Burns would overtake him and beat him on the back, O'Brien attempting widdly to duck and dodge away, until Burns, weary of the foot race, would stand in the center of the 10 g with his hands at his sides and wait for O'Brien to come to a halt in his race around the ropes. O'Brien landed many light blows at long range on Burns' head and face during his capers about the enclosure, but they were absolutely without effect. Clinches were frequent.

O'BRIEN A QUITTER.

The referree had the greatest difficulty or gring the men apart, or rather pryoring the men apart of the series and finally tout the must stop it, the must stop it, the series and finally tout the must stop cling to Burns in the clinches, and must all of the better innguting and lace copponent terrifically about the fact his short arm lefts. O'Brien's holding Burns' glove provented him from using in the clinches.

In the second round the men wrestled the center of the ring and both fell to the flaor. In the opening round free showed apparent rright at his speed.

eppenent's rushes and ran from him at all speed.

In the ninth round Burns, weary of O'Brien's constant retreating, rushed affice him and cornered him twice in different angles of the arena, and inflicted severe punishment on him. The latter made no effort to fight, merely ducking and trying to get away.

Each round was largely a repetition of the preceding one. Burns had the better of most of them whenever he was able to corner his man and get at him. The twelfth round was strongly in Burns favor. During this round Burns lait, O'Brien's left eye open with a terrine everhand right, the blood streaming down O'Brien's face. The latter called to his seconds something about his injury asshook his head in pain.

JACK COMMITTED FOUL.

JACK COMMITTED FOUL.

JACK COMMITTED FOUL.

Again in the fifteenth round Burns caught his man going away and laid open the same eye again, which had been patched up with court plaster. O'Brienceasionally attempted unfair tactics by holding Burns' head under his arm and rying to use his elbow. The reference autioned him and he quit it.

The twentieth and final round was as ame as the others.

Probably 3,000 persons were in the partition. It has a seating capacity of 5,000. The betting was all in O'Brien's not. It started at 10 to 8, and at the lour of commencement was down to 10 612 on O'Brien. But few large bets sere made, Burns bet $3,000 on himself postly at odds of 10 to 7. Burns we goed at 175 pounds and O'Brien was eight ounds lighter.

Before the beginning of the fight Reference the commenced all bets off, under in ructions from Manager McCarey of the leafing Athletic Club. Eyton was unble to give the reasons for this ac

Before You Go

When about to travel, if subject to headache, nervousness, dizziness, or car-sickness, take one or two doses of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills before starting. They will insure you against an attack.

There are a great many who are sure to have headache, whenever they go to church or places of amusement, or where there is any excitement or oppression. Take them with you, and on the first indication, take a tablet and see how quickly it will disappear. To such persons Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are a great blessing. They soothe the nerves and allay irritation and excitement. "We always keep Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills in our home, and find them a remarkable remedy for the relief of headaches, nervousness, etc. Two tablets never fail to stop the most severe headache, but one is usually sufficient. By taking a Pain Fill before going out to places of amusement, we find we do not have those distressing headaches that formerly come with every little excitations. Milsses Mary And Ella Wie-Allsses Mary And Ella Wie-land, 1823 So. 12th St. Springfield. Illinois.
